

CALL FOR PAPER

The 2nd International Conference on Omotic Language Studies

September 20-22, 2021

Description:

The 2nd International Conference on Omotic Language Studies will be held in Arba Minch University, Ethiopia, on September 20-22, 2021. The conference is aimed at bringing together scholars, linguists, researchers, language activists and others working on Omotic linguistics from around the world. The majority of the Omotic languages have been largely oral and have not been described and developed for modern use such as for education, media, literature, and the like. We believe that such kind of international conferences will serve as a forum for exchanging views on recent research endeavors and contributes to the quality of the scientific study and development of these languages.

• Descriptive study of any aspect of the grammar of Omotic languages

- Phonetics
- Phonology
- Morphology
- Syntax
- Semantics
- Pragmatics and discourse
- Language Documentation
- Dialectology
- Language and Society
- Translation and terminology
- Educational Linguistics
- Applied Linguistics
- Antropological Linguistics
- Historical-Comparative Issues
- Language policy Issues
- Language and Identity

We would also like to invite abstracts on other language groups spoken in Ethiopia (Nilo-Saharan, Cushitic and Semitic) and the wider Horn of Africa region.

N.B:- A paper submitted or published before will not be accepted in the conference

- All papers presentation will be archived in Institute of Culture and Language studies of Arba Minch University, Ethiopia.
- Abstract length should not exceed one page and submitted in Word and PDF formats by email to the following address: iclr@amu.edu.et

Address

Contact Person: Seid Ahmed(PhD)
E-Mail:- seid.ahmed@amu.edu.et
Tel +251942080894

Important dates:

Abstract submission deadline:

July 30th 2021

Notification of acceptance:

August 13th 2021

Conference Proceedings

Submissions:

August 30th 2021

Conference date:

Sept. 20-22, 2021