ADVERTISEMENT FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A COORDINATOR FOR TRANSVERSAL SUBPROJECT SEVEN IN AMU-IUC

The Arba Minch University VLIR UOS Inter University Cooperation transversal sub project seven intends to implement the 'Leaving No One Behind principle' in activities focusing on including more gender sensitivity in the research and scientific activities of AMU staff members.

The IUC P7 aims to develop and contribute to various activities, such as data collection and annual monitoring about gender and diversity among AMU students, staff and in AMU decision making, the development of gender sensitive course materials, learning packages and modules, and the establishment of an effective and sustainable organization of day care facilities on various AMU campus locations. The P7 project intends to strengthen the existing daycare centers in the university and to make them operational in line with the directions of the Ministry of Women, Children and Youth. More female staff will be able to engage in AMU research and community service if they know that the university daycare centers take care of the children in a responsible and professional way.

In order to achieve these various goals, the P7 transversal project wants to appoint a fulltime coordinator who can facilitate the various project activities, contribute to the development of the learning packages and the review of gender mainstreaming policies, and prepare the implementation of daycare centers on the various AMU campuses, offering children a safe and fun environment, where they can learn and socialize with others.

Therefore, the P7 project wants to recruit a competent and committed person for these fulltime coordinating tasks.

Requirements: the candidate shall have:

- Master degree in one of the following fields: Gender studies, sociology, Psychology, Pedagogy, Management, Development studies, Special Needs Education, Behavioral Sciences, Social Sciences and Humanities
- A minimum of three years of work experience preferably on gender mainstreaming (master degree level)
- Excellent communication skills and team spirit
- Proven language skills; be fluent in English, both orally and in writing
- proven competence in coordination activities;
